

Look to the East

August 2000

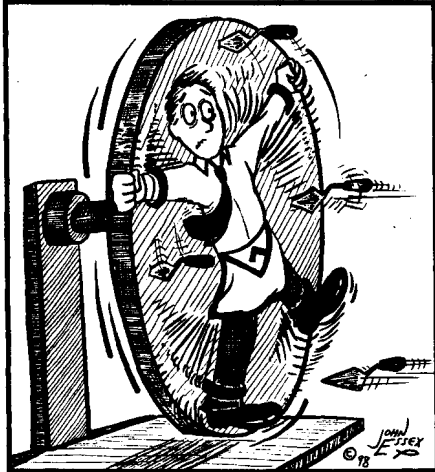

From the East.....

Brethren,

Our annual parking project is quickly approaching. Each year man-power continues to be the key ingredient to the success of this project. We are very fortunate to have this fund raiser to support our scholarship and other worthy causes.

I will be calling within the week to get the schedule finalized by the committee meeting.

Parking Project....

Can you believe it's August already? Where did June and July go? Anyway, August is here and that means the Blueberry Festival is around the corner. The festival is our biggest and only fundraiser of the year. It funds our scholarship programs, helps keep our annual dues lowered, and paid for the new roof on the Lodge this year. All it takes is 4 hours out of your weekend to work and have fun...and it provides so much for the Lodge. To sign up please call Dave Russell at 546-5704, Jim Barkdull at 936-6962 or me at 936-2022.

Hope to see you there!

Jr. Deacon

.....
Amendment~

It was moved, seconded and held held over until the September stated meeting that our by-laws be amended to meet twelve months during the year. When the first Thursday falls on January 1st or July 4th, the meeting will be on the second Thursday. Please be at the September stated meeting to vote.

.....
Scholarships....

Our lodge had one recipient of the Grand Lodge Scholarship and, from our parking scholarship fund, we presented nine children or grandchildren with a scholarship from our lodge. Our best wishes go out to, and with, them as they return to classes.

Egg Breakfast

Grease 9X13 pan—line with 8 slices of white bread cut in cubes.
Beat 8 eggs with 1/2 t. salt & pepper and 1 t. mustard and 2 C. of milk, pour over bread crumbs...make sure they are all moist.
Sprinkle with 2 1/2 C. shredded mild cheddar cheese—layer on cheese 1 1/4 pound sausage which has been fried. Take spoon and pat down a little to sort of moisten up everything. Bake at 350 for about 1 hour.
